

Dear friend.

The programme is quite made up; they had to ask the same performers that were already invited last time, when the "Fest." did not come off. Thanks, all the same, and I look forward to meeting you and Miss Grist with much pleasure, you may be sure!

In haste,
always sincerely

your brother,
April 29th, Brydgh.

[Faint, illegible handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]